About the Warriors

Ridgewater College baseball is steeped in a tradition of athletic development and achievement.

Our two-year community and technical college has campuses in Willmar and Hutchinson, MN. All practices and home games take place on the Willmar campus, but the team is open to students from either campus or online.

The 2021-2022 season promises to be an exciting rebuilding year after the pandemic derailed last season. Players have committed from several states.

Coach Hebrink brings personalized coaching to the field, focused on personal and athletic development as well as academic success.

During his own baseball career, Hebrink was a two-time Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) All-Conference player at Bethany Lutheran College and is in the Top Ten of the school's record book for career batting average. His past coaching experience includes time as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at St. Cloud Technical and Community College during that team's run of National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) College World Series berths. He hopes to spark that same experience for Ridgewater Warriors.

Other coaching assets on the same mission include pitching coach Adam Schrader (former professional baseball player for the San Diego Padres) and Assistant Coach Shawn Dollerschell (former college baseball player specializing in hitting and defense).
