Willmar Campus

About the Warriors

Ridgewater Women's Basketball has proven year in and year out to be a team to contend with. They play in the Minnesota College Athletic Conference (MCAC), one of the strongest and most competitive Division III NJCAA conferences in the nation.

Our two-year community and technical college has campuses in Willmar and Hutchinson, MN. All practices and home games take place on the Willmar campus, but the team is open to students from either campus or online.

It's an exciting rebuilding time for Warriors. Our coaching staff believes that mutual respect and solid relationships help build successful teams and thriving individuals.

During Coach Ogdahl's 20 years with the Warriors, her teams have compiled a 274-236 record and shared great successes.

Warrior History

- State champions and four times earned second or third places in Minnesota
- 3 times regional champs
- 3 national tournament appearances, placing third, fifth and sixth
- Southern Division champions

Along with great team success, numerous Warriors have earned individual awards, including seven All-American honors.
