About the Program

Complete the first two years of most any four-year degree major at Ridgewater or explore options a couple courses as a time. No matter what you call it – completing your generals, getting an AA degree, transfer education, or liberal arts and sciences – Ridgewater is a great place to start your college education.

It's simple! You can save thousands of dollars by starting at a community college like Ridgewater. For a 30-credit academic year at Ridgewater in 2020-21, tuition and fees averaged just $5,680, compared to $8,250-9,081 at a Minnesota university, according to minnstate.edu. Do the math, and then consider the excellent education and personal attention you'll receive from our instructors who help you thrive.

Students who choose to transfer after Ridgewater to obtain a bachelor's degree typically have a very good credit transfer experience as a result of working with an academic advisor to take the courses that best support their goals.

Let us help you get started – on campus or online!
