Willmar Campus

About the Warriors

Warrior Softball has a long tradition of excellence in the field and in the classroom.

Our two-year community and technical college has campuses in Willmar and Hutchinson, MN. All practices and home games take place on the Willmar campus, but the team is open to students from either campus or online.

The 2021-2022 season promises to be an exciting rebuilding year after some time off due to the pandemic.

Coach Jensen brings coaching and alumni player experience to the Warrior field. During her playing career, she was the catcher on the 2012 Ridgewater Softball National Tournament Team where they finished in fourth place.

The Warrior Softball program is 100 percent committed to academic success, athletic success, and balance with family and responsibilities. Coach Jensen inspires goal-oriented behaviors and thrives on adapting to change and growing as a team and as individuals.

Program values include:

- Being committed to giving back
- Learning from each other (coaches included)
- Being respectful of everyone and all circumstances

Many players have earned MCAC academic honors as well as regional and state playing honors.

Historical Highlights:

- 12 All-American athletes
- 9 national tournament appearances
- 10 regional championships
- 9 conference championships
