Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

- To maintain enrollment and financial aid eligibility, you must make satisfactory academic progress (SAP):
 - Maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA and complete 66.66% of cumulative attempted credits
- If you fall below SAP requirements, you will enter a warning period for a semester.
 - You are encouraged to meet with an advisor, coach or counselor to create a plan to return to good standing and avoid suspension.
 - If you do not return to good standing within the warning semester, you will be suspended.

ADD COURSE

- Add or substitute a course by a term's fifth day.

Adjusting Courses Schedules

DROP COURSE

- Remove a course by a term's fifth day for a full tuition refund.

WITHDRAW FROM COURSE/S

- Removing a course AFTER a term's fifth business day results in a transcript 'W' grade.
- Tuition may be partially refunded for total withdrawal of all classes if it occurs in the first four weeks. ridgewater.edu/refunds
- Courses starting after a term's fifth day or that run less than a full semester have different deadlines. Contact Student Services for assistance.

WHAT IS FINANCIAL AID?

Financial aid is money to help pay for college. The money comes from the U.S. federal government and/or the State of Minnesota. Financial aid comes in the form of grants, loans and work study.

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID

GRANTS

Free money that doesn't have to be repaid

- Pell Grant
- Minnesota State Grant
- Federal SEOG Grant
- State Indian Scholarship Program
- American Indian Scholars Program
- Alliss Grant
- Minnesota GI Bill
- Childcare Grant

WORK STUDY

Flexible, part-time jobs for students with demonstrated financial need

- Most positions are on campus, but some are off campus.
- Positions are available at the bookstore, library, maintenance, athletics, marketing department, and more.

ridgewater.edu/workstudy

LOANS

Money borrowed from the federal government which has to be repaid

- Direct Subsidized Loans
- Direct Unsubsidized Loans
- Parent Plus loans

NORTH STAR PROMISE

The North Star Promise program covers the full cost of tuition and base fees (not including tuition differential and tuition surcharges) for eligible Minnesotans at public institutions. The program covers the balance of tuition and fees remaining after other scholarships, grants, stipends, and tuition waivers have been applied. Students must complete the FAFSA or Minnesota Dream Act Application to see if they qualify.
